

What pensions for future generations of Europeans?

What pensions for future generations of Europeans?

Prof. dr. Yves Stevens
26 March 2014

Two dimensions or shifts

- I. The creation of a EPU
- II. The national pillar implosion

2

I.
The creation and birth of
EPU

What pensions for future generations of Europeans?

European Social Model as academic exercise

Three major and even excessive social imbalances

National economic consequences

EMU at stake

It is in the true interest of both the EMU and the members of the EMU that there are well performing welfare states

A sense of common social purpose

4

KU LEUVEN

EFU

European instruments & bilateral or multilateral treaties

Not all MS – economic links

Different economic and fiscal speeds

European Social Model with different speeds

two “new” kinds of treaties

- 1/ Social and labour treaties on specific themes between MS
- 2/ Collective bargaining in branches of industry

5

KU LEUVEN

EMU

EFU

ESU

EPU

6

KU LEUVEN

What pensions for future generations of Europeans?

What pensions for future generations of Europeans?

KU LEUVEN

II.
The national pillar implosion

What pensions for future generations of Europeans?

13

KU LEUVEN

KU LEUVEN

Is the only true way forward:
pillar integration?

Pillar integration and Europe

- Minimum pensions
- Splitting of pension rights
- Pensionable age and career lengths
- Levels of solidarity or levels of individualization
- Mobility rights (not only within Europe but also national (dormant rights))
- ...

15

KU LEUVEN

What pensions for future generations of Europeans?

THANK YOU FOR YOUR KIND ATTENTION

KU LEUVEN

yves.stevens@law.kuleuven.be

